ATR VERDICT: The evergreen Swiss Cross has the chance to roll back the years if handling the drop back to five furlongs. However, he could be vulnerable to younger legs, with BROTHER IN ARMS capable of making amends to supporters who sent him off joint-favourite last time, wearing first-time blinkers off a tumbling mark. C&D winner Zipedeedodah, plus Milton Bradley's pair Spring Holly and Wye Bother, are others to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Easy Southwell scorer WARRIOR'S VALLEY has the chance to make all once again off a 6lb higher mark, with the cheekpieces retained following their success when applied for the first time on that occasion. Cappananty Con went close over course and distance on his stable debut last month and Adam Kirby is an eyecatching jockey booking, while It Must Be Faith is interesting dropping back down in trip having performed with credit most recently.

ATR VERDICT: SAAHEQ has scored three times since joining Michael Appleby in the autumn and the five-year-old can follow up his recent C&D success off a 6lb higher mark. Watchable is 3lb lower than when last scoring in the summer and the consistent performer is respected along with Verne Castle, while a return to five furlongs looks in the favour of Daniel Kubler's Outrage.

ATR VERDICT: Not a lot went right for Exoptable on her introduction at Kempton - sluggish leaving the gates before meeting trouble - but this beautifully-bred daughter of Dark Angel stuck on nicely and is worth a second look. Copper Rose took a step in the right direction when fourth over 1m2f here, while Lope Scholar, a half-sister to Listed scorer Gm Hopkins, is respected on her debut but SEVERNAYA, whose dam won over this trip, may prove sharpest of all representing powerful connections.

ATR VERDICT: Agent Of Fortune was in cracking form during the autumn and was just denied a hat-trick at Kempton when last sighted so must enter calculations on her return, but preference is for a race-fit LION HEARTED. Michael Appleby's charge is four from four since the turn of the year and Mark Crehan's (who is two from two aboard the gelding) 7lb claim cancels out the 6lb penalty he picked up at Newcastle. Rivas Rob Roy is another to note.

ATR VERDICT: CROESO CYMRAEG has impressively notched a Southwell/course (extended 1m5f) double and despite having to shoulder a 6lb penalty for the latter, James Evans' in-form son of Dick Turpin looks more than capable of completing the hat-trick. Clearance also arrives chasing three wins in a row and he is an obvious danger, while Harry Callahan rounds out the shortlist following his recent track success over a slightly shorter trip.

Top Tip: CROESO CYMRAEG (1)
Watch out for: CLEARANCE (4)
