ATR VERDICT: MATCHMAKING, a typical Sir Mark Prescott three-year-old improver, can continue on a steep upward trajectory. He has improved no end from two to three years and has progressed some 22lb in four starts since going handicapping for the first time at Yarmouth in June. Always doing enough when scoring by just shy of a length at Wolverhampton latest, he can go in again at the main expense of El Borracho and Becky Sharp.

Top Tip: MATCHMAKING (1)

Watch out for: EL BORRACHO (2)

ATR VERDICT: SPIRIT OF APPIN has done enough in two starts to suggest a novice race of this nature is well within her grasp and, although she finished a beaten favourite at Chelmsford last time, ran well enough to finish within two lengths of the 99-rated La Figlia. Respectable is improving between runs and should make her presence felt, while La Bass looks the pick of the newcomers.

ATR VERDICT: GLOBAL WARNING performed with plenty of credit when third on debut at Doncaster and, entitled to have improved plenty for the outing and given the fifth has franked the form at Brighton, the son of Poet's Voice could take some stopping. Fearless Warrior boasts a similar profile and must enter calculations, while chances are also given to Wiretap and Power Of Life.

Long Handicap: Ipsilante 8 - 6

ATR VERDICT: Slipstream is expected to take a step forward now debuting for these connections but QUICK RECOVERY rates as the safest bet. There is something about Lingfield, given she's won on both the all-weather and turf tracks on her two visits, which brings out the best in her and a 5lb rise for her latest triumph might not be enough to halt the Lethal Force filly. Mostly Green rates best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: No previous winning form to go on, so perhaps ALL BACK TO MINE can go one better than when second off her current mark at Brighton last time. Joseph Tuite's filly is likely to be given most to think about by Devils Roc, who has filled the runner-up spot on her last two starts but a 6lb rise for those efforts is offset by Scott McCullagh's 7lb claim. Global Goddess is potentially well treated off a mark of 60, as is the 55-rated Obaby.

ATR VERDICT: Anonymous John sandwiched an all-weather success between two near-misses on turf and gets another chance off the same mark as when beaten just a length at Sandown last month. Porto Ferro won nicely over track and trip two starts ago but failed off her current mark here last time, while Secret Potion was beaten a long way into second at Bath. That leaves VEGAS BOY as the safest option, as he battled well to win narrowly at Windsor last time and is only 4lb higher in this.

ATR VERDICT: Dream For Life had failed to beat a single horse home on her first three starts but left that form well behind when a close-up third at Yarmouth last time, with Petite Fleur six lengths behind her in fourth. Aegean Beauty is interesting on her first start, while Resolution was not disgraced on debut, but preference is for AALIYA. Amy Murphy's filly finished on the heels of the winner when third at Wolverhampton first time out and can build on that promising effort here.

Top Tip: AALIYA (2)
