ATR VERDICT: THE BLUES MASTER has displayed promise when placing on his last two outings in this sphere and has been in decent form on both of his starts on the level this year. Alan King's gelding is taken to get the better of On The Meter, who has run well on all three of his starts in bumpers, and Carry On, who makes some appeal on his Market Rasen third in a similar event earlier in the month.

Top Tip: THE BLUES MASTER (7)
Watch out for: ON THE METER (5)

ATR VERDICT: SUE BE IT built on her reappearance effort at Southwell in June when finishing runner-up at Ffos Las last time and warrants plenty of respect as she makes her chasing debut. Red Inca has placed on his last couple of starts over the larger obstacles and has to enter calculations along with Dexcite, who remains open to further improvement on his third outing over fences.

Top Tip: SUE BE IT (2)
Watch out for: RED INCA (5)

ATR VERDICT: SEE THE SEA has won on her last couple of starts in novice company, including over course and distance earlier in the month, and remains open to improvement as she makes her handicap debut. So Lonely disappointed at Galway on her latest outing but is likely to benefit from her sights being lowered, while Outcrop, a winner over track and trip on his latest outing, completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: SEE THE SEA (1)

ATR VERDICT: Richard Johnson rides Silver Man once more after the pair combined to finish second at Market Rasen 15 days ago and warrants respect, while Atomic Rumble's race was ended at an early stage when he unseated his rider at Southwell last month. A chance, however, is taken on PACKETTOTHERAFTERS, who is 2-2 at this track. The veteran has undergone a wind operation since last sighted in April and may have more to offer.

Top Tip: PACKETTOTHERAFTERS (8)

ATR VERDICT: MURPHY'S LAW returned to form when second at Perth three weeks ago and could improve for this stiffer test. The 111-rated five-year-old remains open to improvement at this level and could prove too strong for some more exposed types. Polished Rock shaped with promise when second at Ffos Las in June and could benefit from the fitting of a first-time visor here, while Codeshare is better than he showed at Cartmel last month.

ATR VERDICT: MRS DAVIES was far from disgraced when third at Perth last month and should appreciate this step up in trip for Keith Dalglish. The five-year-old has only had five starts in this discipline and looks ready to open his account now partnered by Brian Hughes for the first time over hurdles. Midnight Aurora drops in trip and class for Dan Skelton, while Irish raider Santa Anna is also worth monitoring in the betting.

Top Tip: MRS DAVIES (7)

Watch out for: SANTA ANNA (8)
