ATR VERDICT: GLOBAL ACCLAIM left a favourable impression when running away with a 6f novice contest here on debut and this additional furlong could unlock further improvement now she bids to overcome a penalty. Elvic should be all the wiser for the experience gained when third over C&D on debut last month and can battle it out with Wolverhampton third Petalite for the silver medal.

ATR VERDICT: 73-rated John Gosden representative BINT AL ANOOD appeared to appreciate the drop back to this trip when picking up the silver medal at Lingfield last time and rates the one to beat. Front of Line doesn't have much improvement to find with the selection based on official figures and could be difficult to keep out of the frame if reproducing the form of her Wolverhampton second latest. Valentinka looks best of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: STILETTO posted an improved effort when second over 1m2f at Chelmsford last time out and is expected to go one better now stepping up to this longer trip and fitted with first-time cheekpieces. Penalised Newcastle scorer Good Soul commands plenty of respect, while any money for Charlie Appleby's newcomer, First Order, would also be worth heeding.

ATR VERDICT: ROCHFORD was always doing enough when scoring over course and distance earlier this month and as the highest rated horse in the field, has a great chance of following up. Cristal Pallas Cat was just as effective when a track-and-trip winner on the same card and has to be given plenty of respect, while Air Of York wasn't too far behind when third on that occasion. Jeanette May was sent off favourite when behind the selection in third last time and can't be ignored, while New Look was a runner-up over 1m2f at Chelmsford last week and now drops back in trip.

ATR VERDICT: DISCOMATIC has been hammering on the door since being switched to the all-weather and the move into the handicap ranks could be the key that unlocks a first victory. Uncle Dick enjoyed the step up in trip when getting on the scoresheet at Wolverhampton earlier this month and is just 3lb higher here. Babajan and Semper Augustus both made the podium off their current ratings last time and are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: Tony Carroll is mob-handed here and the pick of his trio could well be the in-form Lequinto, who has finished in the top two on each of his last five outings. Hollie Doyle takes over on Michael Madgwick's course-and-distance winner Family Fortunes, who was an encouraging third here last time. However, preference is for UZINCSO, who made it three track-and-trip victories on the bounce last month. The progressive gelding seems to do just enough and the booking of Adam Kirby suggests another bold bid beckons.

ATR VERDICT: Broughton Sunpearl won readily over course and distance latest and, despite stepping up in class, he warrants respect. I'm Available has won her last couple of visits to this venue and is interesting cutting back from a mile, but DANCING FEET rates the one to beat. She is 11lb lower than when third in a similar contest at Lingfield last month and arrives following a fine effort in a class 2 conditions race at Wolverhampton 12 days ago.

ATR VERDICT: ONLY THE BRAVE makes plenty of appeal competing from the foot of these weights. She will likely prefer this surface to the heavy ground she encountered on her stable debut at Leicester in October (also lost a left hind shoe that day) and having Hollie Doyle in the saddle is a big positive. Cape Greco arrives following a couple of solid efforts at Lingfield and merits shortlist inclusion, as does Martineo.

ATR VERDICT: Everything points to a big run from NO DIGGITY, who brings winning course form to the table and he scored impressively under tonight's rider at Wolverhampton two starts ago. Perfect Sunset remains relatively unexposed and warrants respect stepping back up in trip on her debut in handicap company, while Chetan cuts back in distance and certainly isn't out of it either.
