ATR VERDICT: THEWOODCORNER's Chepstow victory has worked out well, with both the runner-up and the fourth coming out and winning since. Nicky Henderson's string is in excellent form at present and he is expected to have more to offer, despite a 7lb penalty. Chico Magnifica changed hands after scoring on his handicap debut on the Flat at Hamilton in September and he enters the reckoning along with Monark Wood, who went close at Fontainebleau in November.

Top Tip: THEWOODCORNER (2)

Watch out for: CHICO MAGNIFICA (4)

ATR VERDICT: ZAMEK has displayed a useful level of form in three starts over timber and the combination of a recent wind operation along with a tongue-tie might see a change in fortune for Olly Murphy's gelding. Caspari was too green to do himself justice on his racecourse debut at Ludlow, but the half-brother to Luccia is entitled to take a big step forward. Others to note are Mr Jukebox and Maskarvel.

Top Tip: ZAMEK (5)

ATR VERDICT: ICARE GRANDCHAMP has improved with each start this season, with Gary & Josh Moore's gelding winning on his most recent outing at Plumpton. He remains capable of further improvement and gets the vote at the main expense of Mahons Glory, who is likely using this as his prep towards a return to Aintree after two fine efforts over the National fences earlier in the campaign. A wind operation might aid the cause of Lounge Lizard in his bid to land a hat-trick in this contest.

Top Tip: ICARE GRANDCHAMP (6)
Watch out for: MAHONS GLORY (2)

Long Handicap: Imperial Pride 10 - 0

ATR VERDICT: Having capitalised on a declining mark at Plumpton, a 3lb rise shouldn't prevent Felton Bellevue from making another bold bid. However, DIAMAND DE VINDECY finished second on his chase bow at Catterick and any natural improvement could make him tough to beat. Cloudy Wednesday secured a fifth victory over fences at Market Rasen when last in action and is the pick of the remainder.

Top Tip: DIAMAND DE VINDECY (2)

Watch out for: FELTON BELLEVUE (4)

Long Handicap: Dontworrywegotthis 9 - 5

ATR VERDICT: CASTANEA BREEZE was unlucky to bump into a subsequent winner at Fakenham and this could prove a suitable opportunity for him to regain the winning thread. A 1lb nudge up the ratings is unlikely to halt the six-year-old's progress and he's taken to repel Cuillin Ridge. Henry Daly's charge improved for a step up in trip when runner-up over 3m at Wetherby and another good account is forecast. Handicap debutant Connies Hill is worth a second look in the betting.

Top Tip: CASTANEA BREEZE (2)

Watch out for: CUILLIN RIDGE (4)

Long Handicap: Ramaah 10 - 1

ATR VERDICT: Although no match for the winner, Snapius returned to form with a solid second at Sedgefield. The seven-year-old cannot be dismissed off an unchanged mark, but there is a sneaking suspicion that we've yet to see the best of KALLY DES BRUYERES. He caught the eye when a staying-on fourth at Uttoxeter and subsequently found himself too far back at Market Rasen. A wind procedure could unlock significant potential and he gets the vote. Moyganny Phil is a feasible alternative.

Top Tip: KALLY DES BRUYERES (6)

Watch out for: SNAPIUS (2)

ATR VERDICT: Milpat made the most of his weight-for-age allowance when scoring with something in hand over C&D and he's likely to be involved once more. However, a 7lb penalty does demand more and HIDDEN MOUNTAIN is fancied to make it second-time lucky. Now under the tutelage of Kim Bailey & Mat Nicholls, the five-year-old found only a subsequent Grade 2 winner too strong at Ayr, which suggests he might take some stopping. The market may guide on newcomers Bite The Bullet and The Hostage.

Top Tip: HIDDEN MOUNTAIN (4)

Watch out for: MILPAT (10)
